TURKEY JOINS UP WITH ALLIES

MUTUAL ASSISTANCE PACT IS SIGNED BY TURKEY AND ALLIES

KEY POWER OF EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN FINALLY JOINS BRITAIN, FRANCE

ANKARA, Turkey, Oct. 19.—(P)—Turkey, key power of the eastern Mediterranean, signed a mutual assistance pact with Britain and France here at 6:15 p.m. (10:15 a.m. CST) today.

The treaty was the outcome of British-Turkish and French-Turkish undertakings earlier this year to assist each other "in the event of an act of aggression leading to war in the Mediterranean area."

It contained a clause permitting Turkey to remain neutral in event of war among France, Great Britain and Soviet Russia.

Signature of the treaty took place in the presence of General Maxime Weygand, commander in chief of French forces in the eastern Mediterranean, and Lieut.-Gen. Archibald P. Wavell, British middle east commander.

The pact contained the same terms as had been agreed upon the end of last month before Foreign Minister Suley Saracoglu went to Moscow for the negotiations which finally ended in failure this week.

Any pressure Soviet Russia may have brought on Turkey after her relations with the two western powers therefore was fruitless.

The treaty contains economic as well as military clauses.

Ratification by the Turkish parliament was expected almost immediately.

Meanwhile, Franz von Papen, German ambassador to Turkey, was reported to have been summoned back to Berlin by his government. Von Papen arrived here yesterday from Ankara, the Turkish capital.

Intensification of Turkey's military preparations, diplomatic observers said, tended to confirm a belief that the allies already have promised extensive help from Asia and Africa in event of an emergency.

It was generally expected that General Maxime Weygand, commander-in-chief of French forces in the eastern Mediterranean, who arrived here yesterday, would sign for his government before the end of the week a pact embodying these promises.

MIDDLE-AGED WIFE AND CHURCH WORKER CHARGED DEATH TRIO

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 19.—(P)—Mrs. Bertie Wrather, middle-aged wife of a mattress manufacturer and active in church circles, was held today without bond on charges of poisoning her son, a brother-in-law, and a father-in-law.

Her arrest yesterday culminated an investigation that began two months ago, Attorney General J. Carl Loser said, with the death of Eno B. Wrather, Jr., an only son.

Calmly, Mrs. Wrather pleaded innocent a few hours after her arrest and was sent to jail without bond to await action by the county grand jury.

An autopsy performed on Young Wrather by Dr. W. J. Core, county autopsy physician, disclosed a poison present in the body, Loser said. The coroner also charged the woman with the deaths of Richard Wrather, 50, brother-in-law who died last year, and Andrew Johnson Wrather, 80, her father-in-law who died in 1930.

The attorney general said "some insurance was involved in the boy's death, and there were some estates in the other two cases."

TURK GETS TOUGH AND GIVES STALIN ORDERS WHERE TO GET OFF; TO AFFECT TREND OF WAR

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Writer.

Turkey's militant rejection of Russian demands was observed generally regarded as calculated to give the soviet control of southeastern Europe, is likely to have a vital bearing on the trend of the war.

It's been long since the Turk got really tough, but he certainly gave a striking display of old-time independence in defying the might of Moscow.

This development marks at least a temporary swing of vast importance toward the side of the Anglo-French allies.

By the same token it is regarded in London as Paris as a bad blow to the Nazis.

It means that the onrushing flood of soviet influence has struck a barrier in the lower Balkans.

It may easily presage the rise of Turkey again to a commanding position in the Balkans and

AMBASSADOR GREW TELLS JAPANESE OF AMERICAN POSITION

MANY THINGS INJURIOUS TO AMERICA BEING DONE BY JAPANESE NEEDLESSLY

TOKYO, Oct. 19.—(P)—United States Ambassador Joseph C. Grew today declared "American opinion, based on facts, not pro-German policy, resigned to date as Bulgaria swung toward closer co-operation with Soviet Russia.

It was considered probable Stefan Mihaloff, a deputy regarded as friendly to Moscow, would be designated by King Boris III to form a new cabinet.

Klosselvanoff, a close friend of the king, had been premier and foreign minister since his cabinet was reconstructed Nov. 14, 1938.

Under his guidance Bulgaria has won the right to rearm, denied by World War treaties, and has signed friendship treaties with Yugoslavia and Turkey.

Partition of Poland and Russia's emergence to new dominance in southeast Europe has changed the Balkan picture, however.

Klosselvanoff presented the resignation of the ministers collectively to King Boris III.

The resignation opens the way for formation of a government with a more definite policy in the face of the present tense situation in southeastern Europe.

Grew asserted that this opinion was "unanimous" and as such had a profound effect on government policies, saying, "When such opinion tends toward unanimity, it is a force which the government cannot possibly overlook and will not fail to reflect in its policies and actions."

China To Open Offensive

SHANGHAI, Oct. 19.—(P)—China, engaged for two years in stubborn but retreating war with the Japanese invaders, soon will launch a big-scale counter-offensive under Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek's personal direction in Hupeh, Hunan and Kiangsi provinces, Chinese Press dispatches said today.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—Officials said the speech Ambassador Joseph C. Grew made in China today on Japan's policy in China faithfully reflected the views of the government here.

Bulgar Cabinet Resigns; Expect Increase In Army

SOFIA, Oct. 19.—(P)—Premier

George Klosselvanoff and his cabinet, who had pursued a mildly pro-German policy, resigned to date as Bulgaria swung toward closer co-operation with Soviet Russia.

ANTI-TRUST SUITS AGAINST RICE MILL COMPANIES TEXAS

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S SUIT CHARGES CONSPIRACY TO CONTROL RICE CROP

AUSTIN, Oct. 19.—(P)—The attorney general's department today filed anti-trust suits against 11 rice milling companies in district court here.

The suit which Attorney General Mann said named all of the rice milling companies operating in Texas, charged the defendants in an effort to control the price paid farmers for their rice crop "entered into a conspiracy and formed a trust combination of their capital, skill and acts to create restriction in trade and commerce and to commerce and in the preparation for market and transportation and to create and carry out restrictions in the free pursuit of purchasing, milling and marketing the crop within Texas."

Penalties of from $50 to $1,500 per day from July 1, 1935, were sought in addition to an injunction restraining the defendants from carrying out agreements, conspiracies, trust and combinations alleged in the petition.

Defendants were: Beaumont Rice Mills, Beaumont; Bay City Rice Mills, Inc., Bay City; Pfeffer Rice Milling Company, Houston; Pfeffer Rice Milling Company, Inc., Houston; Standard Rice Company, Inc., Houston; El Campo Rice Milling Company, El Campo; Texas Rice Milling Company, Galveston; Comet Rice Mills, Beaumont; W. M. Loving, Sr., W. M. Loving, Jr. and R. L. Williams, co-partners doing business as the Gulf Coast Rice Mills, Houston; Holophiles Rice Milling Company, Houston; Tyrrell Rice Milling Company, Beaumont.

Allegations in Petition

The petition alleged the defendants entered agreements refusing to purchase rice from persons, firms, corporations and associations and also boycotted and threatened to refuse to buy when producers declined to accept the first and highest bid made by defendants.

The suit was based, Mann said, on an agreement to restrain investigation by members of his staff. One allegation was that buyers of the rice mill companies agreed with each other as to the price which each should

FRENCH MILITARY REPORTS DECLARE NAZIS THROWN BACK

GERMAN FORCES IN CONTACT WITH FRENCH ALONG 100- MILE FRONT

PARIS, Oct. 19.—(P)—The French general staff reported today that Germany infantry units, supported by artillery fire, had been thrown back at several points on the western front.

This localized action, said the regular morning communiqué from the war ministry, was the only activity during a "quiet" night. Drenching rains slowed up operations on both sides and grounded air forces.

German forces were reported to have made contact with the French main line of resistance for 100 miles as a result of their thrusts in the past two days.

French observers reported that German troops in the Siegfried line were working with pumps to combat flood waters from the Rhine. They said the flood also was locking at lower sections of the Maginot line but that the main French fortifications were on higher ground.

Military dispatches said the French took 30 German prisoners Monday when the Germans attacked Apach, a French village near the Luxembourg border.

German forces have withdrawn from certain advanced positions on the Rhine-to-Moselle sector of the front but French observers said this strategy had made their main positions more tenable. The Germans had advanced just over the border at one place near Luxembourg.

No specific mention of any support for Finland in her negotiations with Soviet Russia was made in the communiqués.

"The northern governments recall their willingness to act for the cause of reconciliation x x x that Turkey, having rejected the Soviet proposals, signed a pact with Britain and France at Ankara today, pledging mutual assistance in the event of an act of aggression leading to war in the Mediterranean area," the communiqué said.

As the conference ended, the three kings and Finland's chief executive expressed appreciation of the support given by President Roosevelt and Latin American states.

The communiqué said the governments would continue to collaborate and will follow "their policies which will successfully follow in 1940-1941."

Finland's dangerous situation, due to demands from Soviet Russia in line with the latter's Baltic provisions of the agreement are said unofficially to include Turkish assistance if the Anglo-French allies are called upon to fulfill their guarantees to protect Rumania and Greece from aggression.

BUND LEADER IS DIES COMMITTEE WITNESS THURSDAY

KUHN CLAIMS BUND STILL FIGHTING COMMUNISTS IN UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—Fritz Kuhn told the Dies committee today that his German-American bund still is fighting communists in this country although it wholly approves the new Russo-German pact.

The perspiring leader of the organization made that declaration, amid excited exchanges among the witness, his counsel and committee members, after asserting in response to questions that there was no significance to the fact that a majority of the bund's 71 units were located in the areas occupied by 90,000 Communists of the United States munitions industry.

Rep. Starnes (D-Ala) precipitated the outburst when he asked whether the bund is still fighting the communists.

"Mr. Starnes, I'm surprised at you," Kuhn exploded, leaning forward in his seat. "You a congressman and don't know any better than that."

To laughter and the banging of the gavel by Chairman Dies (D-Tex) Starnes asked whether the Bund approved the Russo-German pact. Kuhn replied affirmatively but when Starnes asked on what grounds, the bund leader began to wave his arms and shout that it would take him 25 minutes to explain that.

Creates Confusion

The arguments between committee members and the witness lawyers as to whether Kuhn would be allowed to answer Starnes' question created great racket and confusion.

At length, however, the bulky, blonde bund leader began his explanation of Germany's economic problems.

Gesturing frequently, his fore-

GOVERNOR PHILLIPS OPPOSED TO FEDERAL CONTROL FOR OIL

SAYS INDEPENDENT OIL OP- ERATOR WILL PASS IF GOV- ERNMENT COMES IN

FORT WORTH, Oct. 19.—(P)—The day of the independent oil operator will pass if ever the blight of federal control is imposed on the oil industry, Gov. Leon C. Phillips of Oklahoma declared today.

On a speech prepared for delivery before the Independent Petroleum Association of America, the red-haired governor predicted federal control would mean "further centralization of power in the federal government and a corresponding surrender of individual liberties."

He criticized the control bill introduced in congress by Rep. Cole (D-Md.) as "dictatorial" and asserted it would set up an appointive commission "with despotic powers."

"I do not believe in vesting such unusual powers in any appointive federal official," Phillips said. "If ever it is exercised, it should be kept narrow and limited. Elective state officials are more responsible to the will of the people."

The governor pointed out that major oil states had joined in a compact to correlate conservation activities, and asserted the states "are getting the job done."

"I do not believe," he added, "that there is any necessity for the federal government to undertake to do what the states are doing and have demonstrated they are able to do, namely, prevent avoidable waste in the production of oil."

Federal control, he declared, would result in duplication of the states' efforts, and through variations in rules, might cause oilmen to "experience difficulty in faithfully serving two masters."

French forces have withdrawn from certain advanced positions on the Rhine-to-Moselle sector of the front but French observers said this strategy had made their main positions more tenable.

BAPTIST CHURCHES OF CENTRAL TEXAS
AIDING IN DRIVE

MISSION PLAN CALLS FOR EXTRA SUNDAY OFFERING AND DAY'S SALARY

WACO, Oct. 17.—(Spl.)—Rev. M. O. Cheek, Baptist district missionary, reported Sunday that an overwhelming majority of Central Texas Baptist churches are cooperating in the special October mission plan of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

The plan, based on the fact that the church year closing this month has 53 Sundays instead of the usual 52, provides that collections of the church on some designated Sunday in October be given to missions and that each member of the church give a full day's salary on that day.

One million dollars for the year, some 40 per cent of it having to come in on this final month, is the goal of the state. Dr. R. C. Campbell, executive secretary of the state convention, is confident of its success.

District 14, in which Mr. Cheek is sponsoring the drive, includes McLennan, Falls, Limestone, Freestone, Hill, Coryell, Bosque, Navarro and Leon counties. There are 220 churches with more than 47,000 members.

The district is due to raise $80,000 of the state goal, and $39,914.53 of it was given during the first eleven months. The remaining $20,000 is to come in during October with the special Sunday plan expected to accelerate it sufficiently.

Rev. Mr. Cheek cited the Fairfield Baptist church of his district as to the efficiency of the plan. This particular church observed the plan last Sunday and on the one day received 30 percent more than the grand total of all the first 11 months.

A checkup of last year's gifts in the district showed $36,392.34 for the first 11 months and $43,981.71 for 12 months, though no such drive was made in October of last year.

Local High Schools Training For Games

Corsicana's four high school football aggregations are training hard this week in preparation for week-end engagements.

The three district leaders, defending district champions, will play their first conference game at Greerbeck against the Greerbeck Gants Friday night. Ennis is the favorite in that district.

Corsicana Bengals, class AA leader, will go to Port Arthur Friday night to meet the Yellow Jackets in a non-conference tilt. Port Arthur is the defending champion of her district.

I. O. F. Home Lynx, smarting under a 13-6 loss last week at the hands of the Mineola club, will meet the Denton Teachers High School in Denton Friday night. The Lynx are the only local club that has been defeated this season.

Corsicana Junior High Panthers will meet Lamar Juniors of Bryan here Thursday afternoon in the only game to be played on a local gridiron this weekend.

TOUGH SCRIMMAGE SESSIONS SLATED TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

After a light drill Monday, Corsicana Tigers started the main work Tuesday afternoon preparatory to their invasion of Port Arthur Friday night. Hard drills will be on tap Wednesday.

Numerous shifts will likely be made by the mentors during the week to get the best combination possible to send against the huge Port Arthur.

The thing causing the mentors the most anxiety, however, this week is whether the members of the club successfully block and pass examinations. If the grade hurdles are negotiated, the Bengal will be ready for the approaching contests.

No serious injuries were sustained in the Hillsboro battle, but a number of "charley horses," cuts and bruises were received.

The Tigers will leave Corsicana for Port Arthur Friday morning and will return Saturday.

Miss Juanita Ramsey
And M. J. Whitfill

Married Saturday

The marriage of Miss Juanita Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Ramsey, to Milton J. Whitfill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Whitfill of Alma, was solemnized Saturday evening, Oct. 17, at 7 o'clock in the study of the Very Rev. Monsignor Graffeo, the priest leading the impressive ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride wore a frock of fuchsia crepe designed with the new corseted bodies and full skirt. Her accessories were navy and her corsage was of pink and white carnations encircled with tiny white chrysanthemums, tied with silver ribbon. Her only jewelry was three strands of pearls.

The bride's sister, Miss Alma Ramsey, was matron of honor. She wore a black and white crepe frock with a corsage of tiny white rosebuds.

Mark Kelly of Ennis served the bridegroom as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The table was laid with a lace cloth over pink, and decorated with a three tier cake on a reflection. The cake was a lovely confection in white and silver with tiny white rosebuds and topped with small white love birds. Mrs. H. P. Rumbelow presided at the cake, and others in the party were Mrs. P. G. Harbison, Mrs. W. W. Ramsey and Mrs. George Edmonds.

The bride's traveling costume was a navy crepe suit with flaring skirt. Quilted trimming edged the jacket. Her accessories were navy and fuchsia.

After a brief honeymoon in San Antonio and Mrs. Whitfill will be at home to their many friends in Ennis, where Mr. Whitfill is employed.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Harbison and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER IS HIGH ON CORSICANA TIGERS BUT WACO, CLEBURNE STILL TO BEAT

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff.

The flying feet of Wally Spencer beat a rhythm of championship hopes today for Corsicana high school.

This 141-pound broken field wizard, hailed as Corsicana's best since the immortal Bobby Wilson, is the boy the experts expect to lead the Tigers out of the football wilderness. A passer, punter and blocker, Spencer heads the most imposing array of gridiron Corsicana has known since the 1932 team crashed to the heights.

Down here they say this team is the best offensive unit they've had since the state championship 1932 outfit. It's one fault is defense, but with boys like Spencer to carry the mail the opposition is generally too busy trying to stop the Tiger scoring to do enough of their own.

Corsicana was heralded as among the state's best before the season started. It is one of the few teams to live up to advance expectations. Unbeaten and untied with a record of 7-0, Corsicana now looks toward next week and the annual battle with Waco.

Waco is rolling in a fashion to remind the old timers of the great teams of the twenties when Paul Tyson's Tigers were riding one of the greatest winning surges in interscholastic league history.

The Corsicana team this season averages about 168 pounds to the man. It boasts in Felto Prentiss, 180-pound center, one of the finest pivot men in Corsicana history.

And those tackles! Each weighs over 200 pounds; Plyler 220 and Andrew 217.

The backfield is light and fast with Spencer leading the way and with Bill Gathright just behind him.

Coach Johnnie Pierce admits he has a good team. He doesn't claim it's championship material.

But, says Paul Moore, local sports writer, if Corsicana gets outside the district it will go places.

Of course, there's still that little matter of Waco. And after that there'll be that little matter of taking care of Cleburne.

Kerens FFA Chapter Had Exhibit Dallas Fair This Year

KERENS, Oct. 17.—(Spl.) The Kerens F. F. A. chapter bagged another honor when they were selected one of only 32 chapters in Texas to enter an educational exhibit at the State Fair. The booth was constructed by Reed Albritton, Buster Auerbach and Clayton Phillips under the direction of Roy E. Cloud, Aggie instructor of the Kerens school.

Many Kerens folk have viewed the boys' work and state that their booth is one of the outstanding among the attractive and worthwhile exhibits in this line.

The Kerens chapter won second place at the recent Navarro County fair, with 14 educational booths entered.

A good showing was also made by the boys with fine calves. Virgil Lee Graves won second place in the senior calf class; Luke Thornton won seventh in the same division. James Puther Whorton won third, the year having placed 17th in the same large group. Luke Thornton also took five prizes on his Cornish game chickens.

Further allegations were: Frequently two or more buyers by agreement submitted identical bids with an understanding rice so purchased would be divided among their several offices; several buyers agreed that one would submit the high bid, the others to offer somewhat lower prices with the understanding that rice so bought would be divided among the offices; buyers would agree that high bids in such a manner that the high bids on various lots of rice offered for sale would be fairly evenly distributed among the mills; if a grower refused the high bid at a particular sale buyers frequently agreed among themselves not to make any bid whatever on that lot of rice when it was offered at subsequent sale.

In addition, the suit charged that in 1938 buyers of the defendant companies organized the rough rice buyers club for the purpose of promoting and furthering a conspiracy, trust and combination of the companies.

up the French withdrawal.

The whole tone of the communiqué was to minimize the scope of the war to date, size of engagements in territories involved in casualties—and to emphasize in effect that the front lines now were the peace-time boundaries.

What war there had been on the western front it laid to French initiative.

The communiqué gave German losses in the west from the beginning to last Tuesday as 196 dead, 356 wounded and 114 missing.

It listed prisoners taken as 25 French officers and 664 non-commissioned officers and men.

Eleven to Sixty.

Eleven airplanes were lost on the western front, it said, while a total of 60 planes were shot down—48 French and 12 British.

The high command declared that the initial phase of the war, which it said, was "provoked by French initiative," had not produced any "serious fighting" at any point in the west.

Summing up developments in the campaign to date, the communiqué added:

"The purely local fighting took place in a flat stretch near the French border in front of our west wall. With one single exception on either side, only small detachments, mostly weaker than one company participated in these encounters."

A "nuisance fire" to date was described as light, and limited to support of minor actions except for "nuisance fire" against advanced fortifications."

Meanwhile, military experts said bad weather might cause Germany to intensify her war at sea.

Weather Good for Subs

They said the rainy autumn season, a handicap to large scale land action, is particularly favorable for submarine warfare.

The scope of German aerial activity also may widen, since the Nazi air force, schooled in blind flying, is trained for bad weather.

Guenther Prien, 31-year-old submarine commander who sank the British Royal Oak at Scapa Flow, inferred that his submarine entered and left the formidable British naval base at the Orkney Islands on the surface.

After telling how he entered the base and made the attack, Prien added, "through my strong binoculars I saw the effect of my torpedoes after I already had turned the boat, heading out of the bay."

Submarine experts said Prien's statement left but one interpretation—that his submarine was on the surface.

Had the boat been submerged, they said, he would have been able to see only through the periscope.

They said it was only by entering on the surface that it was possible for Prien's medium-sized submarine to avoid British mines defending the naval base.

Workers Class Of Kerens Methodist SS In Social Session

KERENS, Oct. 19.—(Spl.)—The Workers class of the First Methodist Sunday school met on Wednesday at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Charles Cherry, Jr., for their monthly social and program. The meeting was called to order by the president and a short business session held.

Mr. T. L. Wootton was leader for the afternoon. Lesson subject was "The Fall of Solomon's Kingdom," including the history of the divided kingdom up to the time of Elijah the prophet. The scripture reading taken from 1st Kings 11:14 was given by Mrs. Olen McClung.

A song "I Am Thine O Lord," followed. The story of the day's lesson was beautifully told by Mrs. Puckett. Mrs. Jack Flite conducted an instructive Bible quiz which concluded the program.

After repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison, the class adjourned for the delightful social hour at which time the hostess, assisted by her small daughter, Gretchen, served a delectable refreshment plate. Novel favors in

One military expert said today that if the air war ever begins on a violent pattern, a minimum of 150 planes will be dispatched on a bombing mission.

Whether the scouting flights across the North Sea are harbingers of a large-scale air attack to come is one of the European conflict's biggest questions to light.

Meanwhile, military experts said bad weather might cause Germany to intensify her war at sea.

PICKED TROOPS OF SOVIET RUSSIA IN
ESTONIA POSITIONS
MEN WELL VERSED IN COM-MUNIST IDEOLOGY PICKED FOR OCCUPATION

MOSCOW, Oct. 19.—(P) Picked Soviet troops, well versed in Russian communist ideology, proceeded on schedule through Estonia today to occupy military bases granted by the little Baltic nation to her huge eastern neighbor.

Dispatches by Tass, the official Russian news agency, from Tallinn said the soldiers were received "in a friendly manner" when they started their march yesterday.

Soviet newspapers reported many film cameras and typewriter machines were being taken along with the army of occupation as well at the best military machinery to impress the Estonians with the efficiency of the Red army.

Soviets Enter Estonia

HELSINKI, Oct. 19.—(P) Soviet Russian troops and naval forces swiftly took possession of military bases granted them in Estonia today with their exact movements checked in cameras.

As Soviet soldiers marched into Estonia from two border points and 21 Russian warships appeared in Estonian ports, the little country's prime minister, Juri Uluots announced national defenses will be strengthened.

Soviet authorities said the appearance of submarine number of warships in addition to several submarines and troopers was necessary when transporting troops and provisions to new bases. Observers said 18 warships were in Tallinn harbor.

MOSCOW, Oct. 19.—(P) Soviet Russia's growing influence in the Baltic was extended today by a new trade agreement with Latvia, one of three little northern states already linked with their powerful neighbor by mutual assistance pacts.

Tass, Soviet official news agency, which announced signing of the agreement, said it provided for a three-fold increase in trade between the two countries.

Russian waterways to the Arctic port of Murmansk and to Black sea ports were made available to Latvian commerce, Tass said, while a large extension of Soviet shipments to Latvian ports was authorized.

Soviet troops continued, meanwhile to march into Estonia under a mutual assistance pact granting Russia three military bases on Estonia soil.

Russian negotiations with Finland remained in a state of suspension pending the return, possibly this week-end, of a Finnish mission.

(Continued From Page One) expansion, formed the theme of Finnish President Kyosti Kallio's broadcast. A powerful neighbor (Russia) has put forward for solution questions of a very serious character, and Finland feels grateful for the diplomatic support received from others in this connection," President Kallio said.

"I trust that God will hold his protecting hand over the peace-loving people of Finland and hope that our neighbor in the east will respect our integrity and freedom and refrain from making demands which are unacceptable," Kallio said.

King Gustaf of Sweden in speaking of the results of the conference, said:

"The meeting has confirmed the similarity of the policies of the four Nordic countries x x we will cooperate to live as free and democratic, safeguard our rights and establish peace."

"We have again ascertained our common interests," said King Christian of Denmark in comparing the conference with the Malmo meeting of 1914 in which Norway, Sweden and Denmark expressed their common neutrality policies.

King Haakon of Norway, the last to speak, declared:

"We have discussed collaboration, both political and material, and believe our cooperation has found a new firm basis so we can look forward to the future with hope we will meet all difficulties."

Solidarity Shown.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 19.—(P) The conference of Finnish, Norwegian, Danish and Swedish heads of state entered its second and final day today, having already attained one chief objective—a demonstration of the Northern Nations' solidarity.

The political quarters were described as holding a "rather more optimistic attitude," although there was no indication of what specific action might result from the meeting called by Sweden's 81-year-old King Gustaf to consider mutual attitudes toward the troubled European situation.

Last night Gustaf, Finland's King, King Haakon of Norway and King Christian of Denmark stood with United on the balcony of the Royal Palace while a great throng of Stockholm citizens, estimated by police to exceed 100,000, cheered. The crowd shouted repeatedly, "Kallio, Kallio," in a tribute to Finland, now involved in political and economic negotiations with Soviet Russia.

Another Conference Suggested.

BELGRADE, Oct. 19.—(P) A conference of the neutral nations of southeastern Europe similar to the Stockholm conference of northern neutrals was suggested today by newspapers in several Balkan countries.

The argument was advanced here, in Belgrade and in Bucharest that the six small powers in this corner of Europe—Hungary, Rumania, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey and Bulgaria—have interests in common as much as the northern countries.

UNAMERICAN

(Continued From Page One) head glistening, Kuhn declared that Germany was a small country with a large population and raw materials. The country needed food, he said, and had begged Britain for years to remedy this situation but Britain had turned the Germans down.

"Then they came to the United States and asked why you have a boycott," Kuhn said. Thereafter, he said, it seemed logical to him to get needed raw materials from Russia.

"That don't mean that I have to take my former enemy's idealogy," he blurted out.

Rep. Voorhis (D-Calif.) protested that wasn't his understanding of what had happened between Russia and Germany.

"Carloads of priests and protestant pastors have been sent into Russia," Kuhn countered, "you ought to like that."

Protest Questions.

An uproar broke out when Starner asked Kuhn whether he believed in the partition of Poland. The witness and two lawyers with him both started talking at once, protesting against questions concerning political ideologies.

The committee is here to get facts, not accept opinions," blurted Peter L. R. Sabbatino, one of the attorneys.

Dies, gaveling the room to quiet again, ordered a luncheon recess.

Soon after the session got under way, with tempers strained and hot words flying, Kuhn submitted a list which he said gave the names of all German-American band units in the United States and their leaders.

The bulky chieftain took the stand with much protesting that he should be in New York preparing his defense against charges of embezzlement of funds from his organization. His attorneys moved for a postponement of the hearing, but Chairman Dies and other committee members decided it should go on.

Kuhn told the committee he had been unable to find in New York newspapers a clipping of an article which he had referred to when he testified at the August hearing. He said then, he had made a visit to Russia by Bernard Baruch.

Didn't Believe Would Find It.

"I told you at the time I didn't think you'd ever find it," commented Rep. Thomas (R-N.J.).

"That's your opinion but mine's different," Kuhn shot back, abruptly adding: "You've hounded us enough."

Rhea Whitley, committee counsel, said that during Kuhn's previous appearance the band leader had testified his position was not similar at all to the positions of Nazi leaders in other countries, such as Konrad Henlein in Czechoslovakia.

"I told you at that time and I tell you again I'm an American citizen and I'm not a Nazi either," Kuhn snapped.

ARMY MANEUVERS IN DAVIS MOUNTAINS
BEING CARRIED OUT

TWO BRIGADES ARE PITTED AGAINST EACH OTHER IN FREE MANEUVER TODAY

BALMORIEA, Tex., Oct. 19.—(P) The two brigades of the first cavalry division, separated by sixteen miles of range and rocky wastes in the Davis mountain foothills, were pitted against each other today in a free maneuver.

At 5:30 a. m. each force sent its rapid scout cars on advance patrols while the long column of main body moved out for battle in the thousand miles scattered area that comprises this mimic battlefield.

The immense area allows wide movement and the full use of terrain obstacles. In the north, eight miles south of Pecos, Brigadier General Jonathan M. Wainwright, commander of the First Brigade representing the Blues, knew that somewhere south of U. S. Highway 290 between Balmorhea and Kent his enemy was ready to move on the dead line.

Col. Innis P. Swift, commander of the Second Brigade, the "Whites," also lacked definite information about his foe. The men of the Second Brigade are wearing a broad white hat to distinguish them. Observation planes of both forces located their respective enemy when dawn disclosed the dust covered terrain.

Thundering scout cars soon made contact and, as the day progressed, both commanders began to jockey for position. The ease and speed with which information of enemy movements poured into the respective command post demonstrated the rapid advance made by communication system of the modernized cavalry in recent years.

Radio equipped scout cars and observation planes kept up a steady flow of information back to headquarters. The length of this exercise constituting the second phase of the annual maneuvers depends entirely on the speed with which the opposing brigade are able to successfully conclude their combat mission.

organ of the bund. He read a headline: "Fritz Kuhn—America's Henlein."

The committee questioned Kuhn closely about a speech attributed to him in the newspaper, now owned by the bund. He was quoted as saying Chancellor Hitler told him at a conference in Germany to go back to the United States and "continue your fight."

The witness explained that he was privately owned when that was published and he vigorously denied that either he or Hitler had made such a statement.

His experiences with the "giant utility interests" for five years, he declared, had convinced him a state utility regulatory commission, with authority to protect the public from unjust utility aggressions and with adequate safeguards against political interference, should be created.

Gas utilities are now regulated by the railroad commission, but there long has been sentiment in the legislature for placing regulation of gas utility rates, oil and other natural resources under another body, which would be appointed by the governor.

The witness explained that he was privately owned when that was published and he vigorously denied that either he or Hitler had made such a statement.

The list of bund units and leaders placed in the committee record by Kuhn included:

Under the supervision of George Proboce (3855 North Western Ave) Chicago; Taylor, Texas; Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and St. Gabriel Valley, California.

"That don't mean that I have to take my former enemy's idealogy," he blurted out.

GALLOGLY REMANDED TO CUSTODY GEORGIA OFFICERS THURSDAY

DALLAS DISTRICT JUDGE REFUSES RELEASE OF ESCAPED CONVICT BY BAIL

DALLAS, Oct. 19.—(P)—District Judge Grover Adams today remanded Richard Gray Gallogly, escaped Georgia life-terminer, to the custody of Georgia officers for return to that state at conclusion of a criminal district court habeas corpus hearing.

Gallogly's attorneys immediately filed notice of appeal and Judge Adams, while tentatively refusing to grant bail, remanded Gallogly to the custody of Sheriff Simeon Schmid of Dallas county pending litigation.

Judge Adams, commenting he did not feel he could grant bail since the record conclusively showed Gallogly had been finally convicted, agreed to give defense attorneys the time to cite authorities on that point at a later date.

Gallogly, slender, 30-year-old Georgia convicted as an accessory to the slaying of a drug store clerk, took the stand and testified he had no property in Texas and would be unable to make a large bond. He added that so far as he knew, none of his family had personal or real property in Texas.

He said his mother and grandmother had Georgia holdings but he did not know their worth.

Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel yesterday granted extradition of the fugitive.

DALLAS, Oct. 19.—(P)—Attorneys for Richard Gray Gallogly stubbornly contested his return to Georgia today as District Judge Grover Adams opened a habeas corpus hearing for the escaped life termor.

The state offered a writ authorizing the 30-year-old fugitive's return, granted by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel, and numerous other papers in connection with Gallogly's indictment and sentencing, and in connection with the extradition proceedings.

Conservative Gallogly objected on technical grounds to virtually each instrument as it was offered. Arthur Lee Moore of Fort Worth, one of Gallogly's lawyers, offered as one objection that the papers presented Gov. O'Daniel offered no proof that E. D. Rivers is governor of Georgia.

J. W. Leecraw, assistant solicitor general of Fulton county, Ga., testifying for the state, assured the court Rivers was the Georgia governor.

The hearing, originally set for 10 a. m. did not begin until afternoon. It was delayed by a bur-geary trial.

UNFRIGHTENED YOUTH

The hopeless state of American youth, now that the unlimited opportunity of a new land supposedly has been exhausted, is the frequent topic of the pessimist and gloom-dispenser. Proof may be found, however, that American youth does not yet despair, and that his parents do not despair for him.

For one thing, there is the heavy enrollment in colleges, some of which report the biggest freshman classes in ten years. In the school year of 1929-30 there were fewer than 1,000,000 college students. As the present term begins there seem to be 1,600,000 of them.

Perhaps the pessimists will shake their heads and say this means only an increase later in the army of college-trained unemployed. It may be doubted that the young people in question look at it in that light. They have purpose, as well as youth, hope and courage. They know what they want and it may turn out that they know how to get it.

AMERICAN "BLACK-OUTS"

Yes, we have our "black-outs" in this country. But how different from those of Europe, which deliberately blot out the lights of great cities at night to foil a belligerent foe!

Ours are peaceful, reassuring and prosperous. They come from the smoke of industry. The columns rising from thousands of furnaces, mills and factories are banners of prosperity. The resulting soot, it must be admitted, is less beautiful than snow; but for a while, at least, people will not complain about it.

CORRESPONDENCE

Public officials are supposed to like letters, even if it isn't exactly "fan mail." They want to keep in touch with the people. Probably business officials, too, would rather get a lot of mail than none at all. Letters seem to indicate interest and aliveness. Yet they could often be omitted without loss to anybody.

An important military man at Washington, Chief of Staff Marshall, glancing at the usual pile of letters dumped on his desk in the morning, is quoted as saying he could tell, without looking at it, how any letter in the lot would begin. Challenged to illustrate, he said it would be like this: "I know how busy you must be, and I hesitate to inflict a further burden on your time, but..."

When the sample letter was casually drawn from the pile and opened, it missed the formula, by only one word. It said "impose" instead of "inflict."

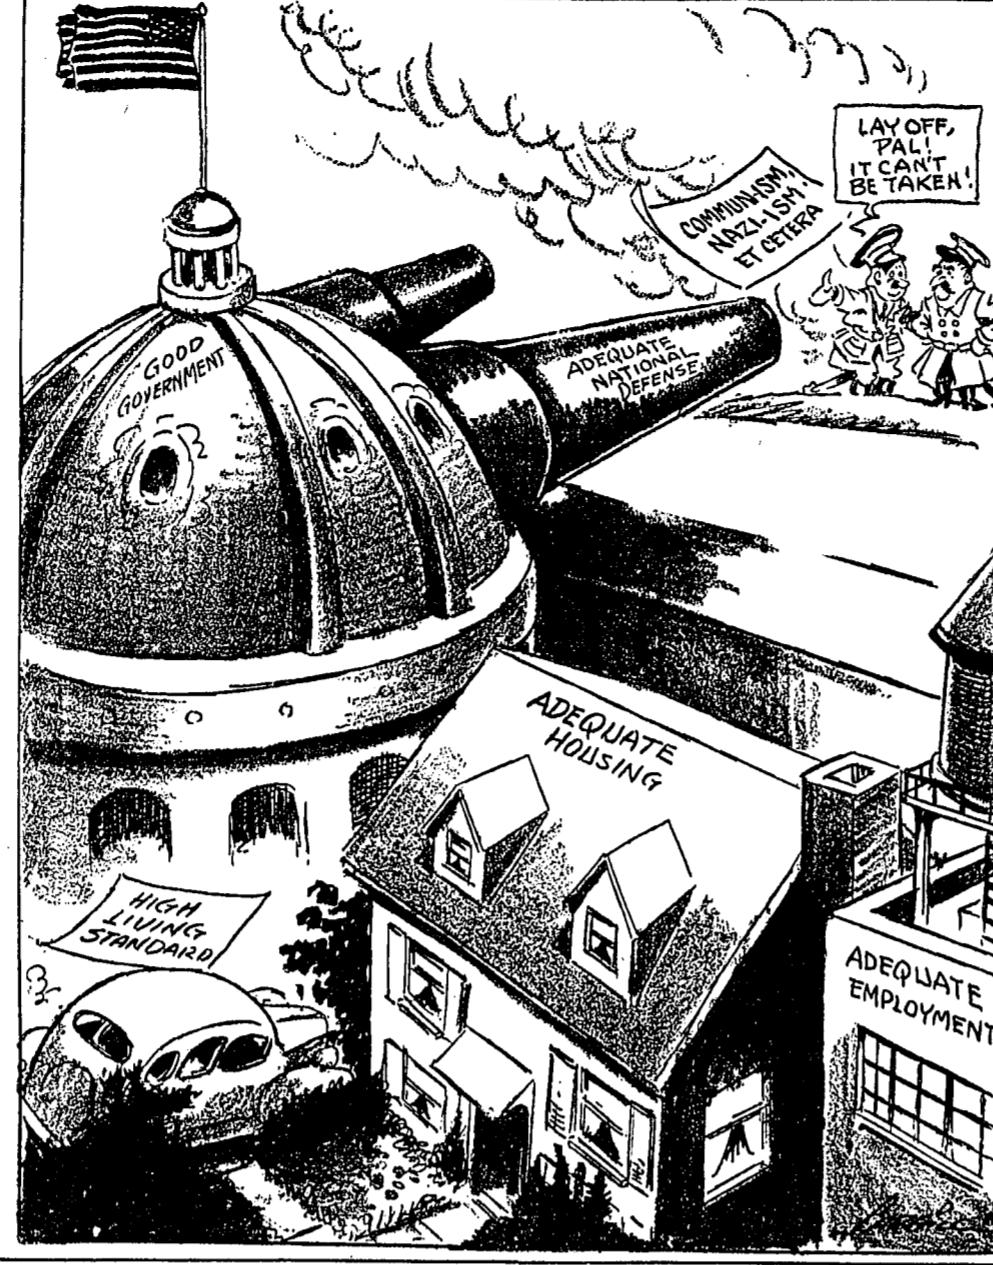

Have a heart. Think of this next time you're moved to write the kind of letter that most people write to busy people.

Dr. Gallup reports that only one out of ten Americans is fooled by propaganda today. It's only what might have been expected of a nation whose favorite expressions are "Oh yeah!" and "So what?"

Maybe it's lese-majesty, and maybe it's just a hunch; but anyhow, while Congress talks, manufacturers go right on preparing to make and sell munitions.

America's call to battle is against such enemies as ignorance, poverty, disease, unemployment, industrial strife and crime.

Lafayette, we're here—and if you don't mind, we think we'll stay here.

OUR MAGINOT LINE
(As Strong as We Care to Make It)A CHANCE FOR THE FUTURE*FUNERAL SERVICES FOR D. W. PREWITT WERE HELD MONDAY

A worried human being gets some reassurance from current books. So many intelligent writers take it for granted that life will go on and that it will improve.

There is the book on democracy by Edward Benes, a founder and former president of a plucky little republic called Czechoslovakia. In view of what has happened to his country one might expect to find Mr. Benes pessimistic. But his book is titled "Democracy Today and Tomorrow" and it sets forth his belief in, and reasons for, the survival and spread of democracy.

There is a scientific book by Waldemar Keimpfert, "Science Today and Tomorrow," in which the author observes that "there are signs enough that democracy can invent socially and save itself from the dictatorial planning of Fascism and Communism."

There are other books of a similar optimistic and constructive tone. Perhaps we may make the future to our liking, after all, not to the dictator's.

CONQUEST.

The two big dictators, with their conquests and carvings, are like grown-up children playing with building blocks.

They may have a wonderful time for a while remaking the map of Europe and possibly taking a fling also at one or two of the other continents. There is no more fascinating game for statesmen with a bent for empire-building. And like the children, they take such work very seriously while they are about it. They may even tell the world, as one of the present architects is actually doing, that they are building "for a thousand years" or "forever."

Well, Alexander, Caesar, Charlemagne, Napoleon and many another conqueror all tried that game. But it doesn't seem to work so well in modern times as it used to. Napoleon, probably abler than either of these present supermen, built himself a wonderful European empire which, just about the time he got the capstone set, fell to pieces. And the builder died as a prisoner of war, on a solitary British island in the South Atlantic, where his architectural operations wouldn't do any harm.

Today, in this conflict which may yet set the world on fire, it seems clear that Hitler, Kaiser Wilhelm's successor, is not only the spokesman for Nazi Germany, but also the driving force and the individual in actual control of government, army and national policy. The powers that normally operate in a balanced state—the business, labor, agricultural and other groups—have been crushed or have abdicated.

The "oomph" man of radio, it appears, is neither Robert Taylor nor Clark Gable, but the fellow who conducts the setting-up exercises for housewives.

Dr. Gallup reports that only one out of ten Americans is fooled by propaganda today. It's only what might have been expected of a nation whose favorite expressions are "Oh yeah!" and "So what?"

Maybe it's lese-majesty, and maybe it's just a hunch; but anyhow, while Congress talks, manufacturers go right on preparing to make and sell munitions.

America's call to battle is against such enemies as ignorance, poverty, disease, unemployment, industrial strife and crime.

Thank Heaven, our first line of defense is 3,000 miles wide and very deep and wet.

TURKEY MEETING IS LARGELY ATTENDED; INFORMATION GIVEN

The Turkey meeting conducted yesterday by George McCarthy, poultry husbandman of the A. and M. college extension service at the Walker Produce company plant was largely attended by Navarro county turkey growers.

Mr. McCarthy explained to those in attendance that the quality of Texas turkeys generally could and should be greatly improved if we were to maintain profitable outlets for the birds. This, he said, could be done by proper selection of desirable birds for breeders, which with good management and feeding methods combine to produce high quality, early maturing birds that always bring top market prices.

An outstanding example of development along this line was reported in the production of the so-called "babv beef" type of turkey which carried almost twice as much meat as the standard bird. Naturally, such turkey is much more desirable from a market standpoint, as the bird is primarily a meat producer.

"Good turkeys," said McCarthy "make just as efficient use of surplus farm feeds as any other form of livestock. They can be profitably grown on many Navarro county farms, and deserve consideration in many more farm operation plans."

Andrews Quits as Administrator of Wage-Hour Law

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(P)—The resignation of Elmer F. Andrews as wage hour administrator to be succeeded by Col. Philip Fleming of the army engineers was announced today by the White House.

Andrews' resignation was effective yesterday. He will join the staff of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Fleming, who is now serving as district engineer for the army at St. Paul, Minn., will be detailed to the secretary of labor. She will assign him to be assistant to an acting wage-hour administrator who, until Fleming is ready technically to take full charge, will head the agency.

Stephen Early, a presidential secretary, said congress would be asked to change the statutes to permit Fleming to become ultimately the administrator of the wage-hour division. He will, however, have full charge of wage-hour work, even though technically he will be subordinate to the acting administrator for a time.

This was the third test drilled by these operators in the Bazette field, the first two coming in for fine production around the 3000-foot level. No. 2 was 660 feet south of west from No. 1, while No. 3 test was 660 feet from No. 2.

The first two producers are on 30-barrel per day, five-day per week allowable under regulations of the mineral commission.

Whether tests to the west, east or north of the production already found will be made, has not been indicated.

Absence of Members Prevents Session Of City Commission

Absence of three members of the Corsicana city commission from the city Tuesday prevented the regular second October meeting of the body. Only Mayor J. S. Murchison and Commissioner Travis Fullwood were available.

Commissioner Fred Prince was reported in Tyler, J. Harry Burke in Austin and W. E. McKinley in Hot Springs.

Parity Payment Checks.

A total of $1,000,000 for 1939 parity payments to Navarro county cotton producers were received at the county AAA offices Monday amounting to $3,653.29. This brought the year's total to $355,337.98.

Those leaders virtually have agreed that it would be difficult to obtain agricultural appropriations at the next session approaching those of recent years unless some method is devised to raise a portion of the money.

Plan Processing Taxes to Finance Farm Subsidies

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(P)—With prices of most major crops still below New Deal goals despite improvements that followed the outbreak of war, administration farm leaders are planning to seek congressional approval of processing taxes to finance agricultural subsidies.

Those leaders virtually have agreed that it would be difficult to obtain agricultural appropriations at the next session approaching those of recent years unless some method is devised to raise a portion of the money.

Plane Passengers Receive Television Broadcast Aloft

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(P)—A dozen persons in a transport plane four miles above the earth enjoyed televised movies and a television broadcast today.

Television images had been picked up before by a receiver in an airplane, but the distance at which the images were received today—more than 200 miles—brought up a new record.

It was made possible by the altitude at which the plane flew, more than 20,000 feet. Ultrashort wave impulses, which carry television images, are like light waves in that they do not follow the curvature of the earth.

Ground receiving sets seldom can obtain images over a distance greater than 50 miles. By ascending to a great height, engineers were able to draw a theoretical "line of sight" from the broadcasting equipment, on top of the Empire State building in New York, to the plane.

Their capture halted a wild foray during which they were credited with a number of kidnappings and an automobile theft.

Next, the trio kidnapped Mayor E. F. Kriegel and his son, Lawrence, and Rudy Weigelt of Gladewater, but released them. Then two of the convicts abducted Ira Edmonds, Hearne youth, and after keeping him all day, put him out near Coalgrove. They had taken an automobile belonging to Edmonds' father, W. L. Edmonds. The automobile was recovered when the trio was captured at Grandview.

Edmonds sold the two who kidnapped him picked up the third fugitive, near Cameron.

Lee A. Parden, a guard at the prison farm, was charged with aiding and abetting prisoners to escape in a complaint filed yesterday at Richmond. Parden reported he was shot when the four convicts escaped.

TRAIL OF CRIME TRIO OF ESCAPED CONVICTS IS ENDED

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17.—(P)—Handcuffed together and guarded by two Texas rangers, the three escaped convicts of Central prison farm near Sugarland, left Tarrant county jail en route to "the wall" at Huntsville by automobile today.

FORT WORTH, Oct. 17.—(P)—A trail of crime followed by three escaped convicts ended here early today with the desperadoes again behind prison bars.

Aubrey Scally, 41; Leo White, 33, and Joe Marvin Burleson, 31, all long-timers, were captured last night at Grandview by Sergeant Herman Reissig and Patrolman B. C. Wilkins of the state police. They offered no resistance.

Their capture halted a wild foray during which they were credited with a number of kidnappings and an automobile theft.

Next, the trio kidnapped Mayor E. F. Kriegel and his son, Lawrence, and Rudy Weigelt of Gladewater, but released them. Then

When disease attacks, it often falls far short of this.

Heart Disease is NOT HEREDITARY!

Heart Disease is acquired in the vast majority of instances. Some of the heart destroying diseases are rheumatism, hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and syphilis.

Not all Heart Disease is alike. Many people live to a ripe old age, who for years had diseased hearts others die without ever being aware of that condition.

PEVEHOUSE PLEDGES SUPPORT TEMPORARY TAX PLAN PROPOSED

REPRESENTATIVE SIXTIETH FLITORIAL DISTRICT ANSWERS GOVERNOR

AUSTIN, Oct. 19.—(Spl.)—Doyle Pevehouse, of Corsicana, flitorial representative from Hill and Navarro counties, has advised Governor W. Lee O'Daniel he would support the Governor's "consumers tax bill" as a temporary relief proposal, to relieve the acute social security problems.

"I would support his proposal as a temporary relief measure effective only until August 1, 1941, or any other measure that would not be detrimental to our citizenship," Pevehouse stated. He asserted that he would support the measure in order that pensions may be paid to the aged, that funds may be matched for the benefit of the school teachers, that aid be given to dependent and neglected children, and unfortunate blind.

In discussing the old age assistance problem, Pevehouse said it was not a moral or social right in question, but a legal right and said he would support the question "until the people of Texas rescind their action creating the right."

Pevehouse pointed out he supported the Omnibus Tax bill on natural sources and other statutory tax bills before the Representatives as well as the Senate Joint Resolution No. 12 as amended in the House, eliminating a sales tax on foods, drugs and ice and other commodities.

The representative said he voted for the submission of Senate Joint Resolution No. 12 to the people as a last resort when the legislature was unable to agree on a tax bill.

"Knowing the people of my district and their sentiment, I do believe that they would sanction a sales tax on foods and other ordinary commodities of life in order to pay our social obligations alone and thereby place the burden on poverty to pay the bill, and therefore I would not support that as a means alone. It is by purpose to carry out the will of the people of my district and will at all times so long as I am their representative," Pevehouse concluded.

News of County Home Demonstration Clubs

Long Prairie Club KERENS, Oct. 19.—(Spl.)—The Long Prairie Home Demonstration club had a regular meeting Thursday at the school house for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The house was called to order by Mrs. Weldon Kerley, who acted as chairman during the election of the following:

President, Mrs. Alton Quinn; vice-president, Mrs. H. H. Trent; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Leslie Parker; reporter, Mrs. Weldon Kerley.

The new president assumed her duties at once, disposing of all old business in an efficient way. During the discussion of new business a move was made and carried that the club make a donation to the Long Prairie Methodist building fund. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Louis Henderson, and will be a Halloween party. Every member is urged to come.

NAVARRO COUNTY PTA LUNCHEON BE HELD IN CORSICANA, OCT. 21

Members of the various local P.T.A. groups of Navarro county will congregate at the Navarro Hotel Saturday, Oct. 21, at 12 o'clock, for their annual luncheon. The various associations of Navarro county, including: Corsicana, Dawson, Keren, Barry, Blooming Grove, Corbet, David Crockett, Corsican Junior High Mildred, Petty's Chapel, Robert Lee, Sam Houston, Stephen F. Austin, Wm. B. Travis, Emhouse, Frost, Navarro, Powell, Purdon, Purdon-Pursley, Rice, Richland, and Eureka will come together on slopes where only a slight erosion is evident, the practice of strip cropping and contour tillage provides adequate protection. However, severe erosion on greater slopes may require more complex or extensive treatment.

Terracing Effective

Terracing is considered as an effective erosion control measure and conserves moisture. This measure is recommended primarily on sloping lands that must be utilized for clean tilled crops and on which less expensive conservation measures will not provide sufficient erosion control. In general practice terracing is not considered for lands that can be plowed or retained under permanent vegetative cover, nor is it economically feasible.

Terracing Effective

Terracing is considered as an effective erosion control measure and conserves moisture. This measure is recommended primarily on sloping lands that must be utilized for clean tilled crops and on which less expensive conservation measures will not provide sufficient erosion control. In general practice terracing is not considered for lands that can be plowed or retained under permanent vegetative cover, nor is it economically feasible.

"Knowing the people of my district and their sentiment, I do believe that they would sanction a sales tax on foods and other ordinary commodities of life in order to pay our social obligations alone and thereby place the burden on poverty to pay the bill, and therefore I would not support that as a means alone. It is by purpose to carry out the will of the people of my district and will at all times so long as I am their representative," Pevehouse concluded.

MUCH ADVERTISING CORSICANA RESULT FINANCING OF BOYS

BOARD DIRECTORS CHAM- BER COMMERCE MET TUES- DAY REGULAR SESSION

Extensive advertising for Corsicana and Navarro county over the state and in nearby sectors in anticipated from the spread of the plan of financing boys' enterprises used and according to members of the board of directors of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce at their regular meeting Tuesday morning.

Minutes of the last session were read and approved.

President J. M. Dyer opened the meeting by expressing his appreciation of the generosity of Messers J. N. Edens and F. H. Harvey, Jr., for having the board as their guests at the meeting of the directors of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce here.

Under the head of communications, Secretary R. W. Knight reported receipt of information that U. S. Highway 287, recently designated through Corsicana via Palestine, was being marked in Oklahoma, and remarked that this section should receive their signs soon.

He also reported commanding the route fair from Huntsville to Huntsville, poultry judge, and A. L. Darnell of College Station, dairy cattle judge, on the quality of the show; and another from C. R. Hackney, Huntsville State Teachers College band director, for the entertainment supplied the band.

District Meeting

He also announced a district meeting of the East Texas chamber for this area at Cameron on October 28 and urged that the county be represented. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. and run to 12:30 and be followed by a luncheon.

The manager also read an editorial from a Waco newspaper of October 9 which called attention to exceptional hospitality shown Waccans and visitors during the fair and holding it up as an example for others to follow.

Mr. Harvey presented a report on the meeting of the livestock committee of the regional chamber at Mexia recently with Mr. Edens presiding. He said the committee recommended the Navarro county plan of financing boys' beef projects and it was later adopted by the regional unit. He said reports were presented on feed-breeder movements and a plan to market surplus feeds through cattle emphasized. He said that Chairman Edens was highly pleased and complimented for his work with the boys in cattle development and on pasture work.

Mr. Edens presented the main report on the meeting of the regional chamber directors' meeting in Corsicana, stating his thought the city should be honored that many of the board attended. He said the chamber had adopted the local plan of financing youth projects and believed it would be one of the most important and far-reaching efforts ever made in the state to aid agriculture.

President Dyer said he was impressed by the interest shown by the visitors in the finance plans, and the general activities of the chamber, pointing out many of them travelled long distances for the meeting.

Praise For Fair

Mr. Harvey said he had received many letters from the visitors stating their appreciation for the hospitality and amazement at the quality of cattle in the vicinity, the fair plan and particularly the report on the boys' beef campaign and financial methods.

A. Bradley, assistant county agent, read the report of Ralph Stell, chairman of the Boys' 4-H Club program, in which it was stated 143 boys had entered 169 calves in the fair show, with thirty from five surrounding counties. He stated the gross sales from the show amounted to $1,077 with total weight at 134,773 pounds for the 143 entries sold with an average of 104 cents per pound.

The report also expressed thanks to Messers Edens, O. M. Rector and Joe Miller Jefferson for the work with the boys.

Mr. Edens stated most of the boys made profits ranging from $8 to over $100 on their animals. Mr. Bradley also reported much interest was being created in the extension work by the financing methods and frequent mail writers being receptive and the result was it was anticipated a much larger group would participate not only in beef cattle work particularly adopted to this area, but also in dairy cattle, hogs, turkeys and other poultry. He said most of the boys were showing a desire for better quality stock, and many desired to get young calves now so they would have animals under 900 pounds next fall.

President Edens of the fair association urged that proper caution be observed in certifying boys for the projects in order that excessive failures not hurt the program in general.

The president called attention to large delinquencies in dues to the chamber of commerce and told directors they would be called upon to assist in collection campaign.

Highway Meeting

A large delegation was urged at the next meeting of the Texas Highway Commission which will be held at the Baker Hotel in Dallas on October 31. Considerable discussion was evoked, and Chairman Edens of the highway committee charged many business leaders in the state were interested in highway matters but were unwilling to devote any time to the campaign to secure needed improvements. Attention was called to improvements being secured in many other parts of the state while this thickly-populated section was being ignored when their problems were pressing.

Secretary Knight read the names of the members of the committee aiding Chairman Stell in the boys' work, and complimented them; he also reported a vocational luncheon school had been in progress the past five weeks in the city under the auspices of the vocational bureau of the State Department of Education.

He also reported on the recent soil conservation district hearing, the completion of work by the U. S. Army engineers in their flood control mapping operations, and on a turkey demonstration on Monday.

SCORES OF TEXANS HOLD GOOD POSITIONS WITH GOVERNMENT; POSTS AND SALARIES LISTED

By L. T. EASLEY
Associated Press Staff.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Scores of Texans hold important legislative, executive and judicial positions in the government, the official register of the United States, just released by the civil service commission, disclosed.

Many of them served in Texas, a great number with the government in the District of Columbia, and others in federal posts throughout the states and in foreign countries.

The register listed persons by their legal residences, disclosing only the congressional district from which they come. Many important federal positions in Texas are held by persons who maintain legal residences elsewhere.

Highest paid Texan listed was Vice Admiral John M. Gwynn, whose annual salary is $15,000. Senators Shippard and Connally and the 21 representatives from the Lone Star State draw $10,000 a year each.

Other Texans named in the register (stationed at Washington, D. C. unless otherwise stated, where legal residence is maintained in parentheses):

James A. Muncey, SCS engineer, Amarillo (10th) $4,800; H. H. Finnell, regional SCS conservator, Amarillo (Oklahoma) $6,000; Henry G. Lewis, in charge of conservation surveys, Amarillo (Oklahoma) $4,800; George L. Crawford, SCS conservator in Puerto Rico (6th) $5,200; Cyril B. Webster, regional SCS nurseryman, Fort Worth (6th) $4,800; Horace V. Geib, SCS conservator, College Station (11th) $5,000; Glenn Briggs, charge SCS land utilization, Fort Worth (6th) $4,800; James C. JOINT SESSION OF
SERVICE CLUBS HEAR
BEAUFORD H. JESTER
OVERSEAS VETERAN DIS-CUSSES MATTER OF AMERICA AND PRESENT WAR

Reasons why America should not enter the European embroilment backed with ominous examples of facts, virtues and failings of some adventurous during the last World War were presented by Beauford H. Jester at a joint session of the Corsicana service clubs Wednesday noon at the Navarro Hotel.

Bob Butler, president of the Rotary club and host for the occasion, presided. Announcements were made by Will Thompson, president of the Lions Club and L. K. Carraway, president of the Navarro Club. Guests included the Navarro county grand jury and many local and out-of-town visitors. Mr. Butler introduced Tom Tyson, who in turn introduced the speaker.

Taking as his subject "What Should America Do In This Present Crisis?" Mr. Jester, a World war veteran, outlined events leading up to the last World war and gave examples of the costs, both in life and materials, of such a conflict.

Greatest Cost of War.
The speaker pointed out the thousands of American boys who lie in Flanders Fields in France—the flower of young American manhood. Other thousands, he continued, are buried in America while many other thousands are sick, disabled and bear the scars and hurts of that drastic conflict, overflowing the hospitals and roaming about the country without destination.

He summarized the cost in millions of dollars spent in finance, the American Expeditionary Forces to France and the millions spent to aid the allies, and tremendous sums expended to enable the smaller countries to set up governments immediately following the war.

Turning from the overwhelming financial cost of the war, Mr. Jester pointed out the immorality rising out of the "theatre of war" and continuing down to the present. Immorality was a "backwash" of hostilities and resulted in the rise of gangsterism, dishonesty in business and high official circles, unbalanced business structures, and booms followed by the greatest depression this nation has ever known.

Europe Long Known War.
Referring to what we gained from the war, Mr. Jester pointed out the very things Americans fought to stamp out have come back so strong as to threaten over our great democracy. He attributed these factors directly as being Hitlerism, Communism, and Fascism.

"Europe has never known anything except war throughout her history," he declared.

Mr. Jester appealed to the American people to analyze all statements before forming opinions because American people are greatly susceptible to propaganda.

Concluding, he envisioned America the world leader for peace after this war is over and expressed the hope that America will remain neutral, cultivate present ideals and principles, and see to it that this country remains free where all men can worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience, enjoying freedom, tolerance and unlimited privileges. He advocated that Americans should banish from their sacred shores those who would threaten their liberty and the many things they enjoy in a democracy where God is supreme.

Women: "Build-Up" To Relieve Pain

A weak, run-down, undernourished condition calls for attention!

Such a condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get its foothold. That's one thing which leads to much of women's suffering from headaches, nervousness, those cramp-like pains. A good way to relieve such pains, women by thousands have found, is by the proper use of CARDUI. It stimulates a lagging appetite, assists digestion and assimilation; thus helps build physical resistance to periodic pain. Taken just before and during the "time," many women also report that CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

DESPITE WAR'S UPSETTING, ETERNAL TRUTHS STILL STAND***

Present Pertinency of Sermon on the Mount—How Jesus Has Uplifted the Ideals of Civilization—Today's Big Crowds Are the Church Members.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

In war and in peace, truth still remains truth. Men and nations may have sinned greatly, and departing from truth, have wrought woe in the world; but eventually they must return and accept the eternal standards and be judged thereby. Truth is eternal, and despite all fashionable forms of error, is the ultimate standard of life.

The two greatest statements of universal truth ever revealed to mankind are the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount. They are the Law by which the race must live. One truth transcends them, and that was the life of Jesus, in His culmination on Calvary. He lived more greatly than He taught.

In this day of fear and disruption, of agony and tears, we take refuge in the calm, sure words of the Saviour; spoken to a seated company of disciples along the northern shore of the shimmering Lake of Galilee. It seems almost incredible that these succinct sentences, in the Aramaic tongue, uttered so long ago, before dark-skinned group of persons of no particular consequence, should afford a new platform and guide for the world's behavior. Yet the truth Jesus spoke has been, and still is, more powerful than any of the armoured horses and air armadas that rage today. This Lesson's discussion of the Sermon on the Mount should set millions to meditating upon the irresistible power of truth.

The Great Revolutionist

This wise philosopher, Dr. Francis Greenwood Peabody, in his book, "Jesus Christ and the Christian Character," vividly portrays the power of the teachings of Jesus, as expressed in the changed lives of Christians:

"Jesus was not an organizer of charity; yet the immediate effect of His teaching was a bloom of charity more luxuriant than the world had ever seen. He was not a labor agitator; yet His teaching undermined the Roman system of society, gave new hope to itself and to woman. So dramatic were these social consequences of the teaching of Jesus that it has been frequently described as essentially a doctrine of social transformation, as though industrial changes were His primary aim."

"Far from the truth as this conclusion may be, it indicates the ethical scope of the Gospels. They may be searched almost in vain for social regulations, yet they have become an unparalleled source of social inspiration. Their social principles have transformed the moral code of the world."

In The Present Tense

Oftentimes overlooked, yet of primary importance, is the fact that the Beatitudes, which introduce the Sermon on the Mount, are in the present tense. They present an existing condition for the now. They are not "up in the sky," as the Communists flippantly say, but food for today. Blessed are the poor in spirit, the mourners, the meek, the spiritually hungry, the merciful, the pure in heart, the peacemakers and the persecuted.

"Happy" is the best colloquial translation of "blessed"; and those who practice the Beatitudes are declared happy in their present condition. For Jesus was most concerned about character, rather than circumstances, knowing that character, in the long run, shapes circumstances. Therefore He had the audacity to declare that those whom the world despises, but whose souls are attuned to eternal truth, are the really happy ones.

In addition to future rewards—"all this, and heaven, too"—they have won the great plus of life. They already are blessed. They have Divine approval, a peace that the world cannot know or take away. Then walk the Way." —One New York Editor

Beyond civil question, the multitude of persons who seek to conform their lives to the standards of Jesus are the really determinative force in the nation's life. Anyone who thinks otherwise is simply not posted. I talked with a New York editor recently who seemed sincerely to believe that night clubs, theatres, movies and sports are the public's real interest. The fact that a hundred persons in New York go to church for every one that patronizes a night club could not penetrate his strange provincialism. That more than half the population of the United States and Canada are members of some church is a fact that is monumental evidence of the present power of God over human lives. The silent majority of godly humans does not often find expression in the news. Any son, successful athlete commands more press space than the most potent Bible class teacher.

President Roosevelt, in his radio address at the outbreak of war, reminded the people that, while the Sunday School lesson for October 22 is "The Citizens of the Kingdom"—Matthew 5:1-16,

LARGE ATTENDANCE
INTERESTED WOMEN
AT POULTRY SCHOOL

A large attendance of interested women was reported Monday at the poultry school on the killing, dressing and grading of chickens at the Walker's Cold Storage Locker System Monday. George P. McCarthy, extension poultry husbandman, Texas A. and M. College was in charge of the demonstrations, assisted by Miss Minnie May Grubbs, district agent, and Mrs. Isla Mae Chapman, home industries specialist, all of College Station.

Demonstrations of the proper way to kill chickens so as to get a good "bleed" were held and the better manner of dressing the poultry was shown. Each of the poultry demonstrators then killed and dressed a chicken. McCarthy then graded the dressed chickens and conducted an open discussion and questions and answers were exchanged by the group.

Those attending the meeting from Navarro county were: Mrs. R. P. Garrett, Mrs. Julia York, Mrs. W. M. Stough, Miss Alice Crumby, Mrs. W. A. Dobbins, Mrs. E. L. Talley, Mrs. T. A. Talley, Mrs. J. G. Wolverton, Mrs. M. L. Douglas, Mrs. W. C. Marshall, Mrs.

Disturbing of Peace

Complaints against three Houstonians, formerly of Ellis County, were filed by Deputy Sheriff Jeff Spencer before Judge A. E. Foster and Clara E. Rettinger, county home demonstration agent.

Those attending the meeting at Curley Johnson's place on Highway 75 last week-end, three men have already been fined in justice court here in connection with the trouble.

Deputy Sheriff Spencer and George T. Brown are the officers in charge of the cases.

Negro Is Charged With Burglary Here

Leon Russell, negro, is charged with burglary and theft in connection with the alleged theft of $66 pounds of brass from the American Well and Preserving company recently.

The arrest was made Monday following the recovery of the brass at Fort Worth by Deputy Sheriff Jeff Spencer and its identification by an official of the local concern. Russell was charged with theft over $50 and burglary before Judge A. E. Foster who set bond of $500 in each case.

Deputy Sheriff Spencer said the brass had been traced to a local junk dealer, thence to a dealer in Dallas and then to Fort Worth where it was recovered.

The case will probably be presented to the Navarro county grand jury this week.
